Preparing for Dedication.

The dedication of the Woody Memorial Annex of the First Baptist Church has been arranged for Sunday, May 15, and preparations for the event are already being made. The Seward Men's Bible Class will use the main room of the building for its meetings.

It is reported that William Yarborough, a well-known citizen of Matoaca, who has been missing from his home and family for over a week, has been heard from in North Carolina.

A Graceful Act.

Mrs. L. L. Marks, president of the Ladies' Memorial Association, has received from Major Isaac B. Brown, of Corry, Pa., president of the Battlefield Commission. Third Division, Ninth Corps, Army of the Potomac, a bond of the city of Petersburg for $1,000, the interest on which ($46 annually) is to be devoted to the care and decoration by the Ladies' Association of the Pennsylvania monument at Fort Mahone and the marker at Fort Steadman. The association has consented to keep in good condition the memorials and the grounds around them, and on May 30 of each year will place to keep in good condition the memorials and the grounds around them, and on May 30 of each year will place flowers on the soldler's statue at the monument. Any surplus of the interest on the bond left over will be used, by Major Brown's request, to commemorate in some way the valor of the Confederate soldler.

Mrs. Marks has replied to Major Brown's letter, acknowledging receipt of the bond and stating that it will be the pleasure of the association to faithfully carry out the agreement under which the bond has been sent.

MANY INQUIRIES SUCH SPLENDID CURES GIVE PERUNA ITS PRESTIGE!

During the winter months duly bear in mind that Peruna is the remedy for Catarrhal troubles so prevalent then, as coughs, colds and grip.

Could Not Eat Solid Food

Mr. H. W. Nagel, 63 Church St., Meriden, Conn., writes:

"For several years I had been troubled with catarrh of the stomach.

After trying about everything else I was advised to try Peruna. I could not eat any solid food for some time; now I can eat most anything that comes along. I have taken several bottles of Peruna and Manalin, and am entirely cured.

"I heartily recommend Peruna and Manalin to every sufferer of catarrh I thank you for your kind advice.'

Can Now Eat Anything.
Mrs. Joseph Towne, Devil's Lake,
Mich., writes:

"I have tried Peruna and have found it

able to eat anything I desired.
"I surely owe my present health to your wonderful medicine, Peruna, which I shall be glad to recommend to all who suffer as I did. I will be pleased to answer all letters of inquiry, as I feel that there is no medicine like the great and wonderful Peruna."

Was Utterly Discouraged, but Pe-runa Relieved.

Mrs. E. N. Reed, 270 Saw Mill River, Yonkers, N. Y., writes:

"Last August my boy, twelve years old, was troubled with catarrh of the head and throat. He had for a long time been treated by our physician, who only relieved him for a time, and then he grew worse.

"I was advised to try Peruna. I gave him three bottles of it and it cured him. He grew stronger day by day, so I knew it was a very good medicine.

"Some time ago I began taking Peruna for my ailments. I saw in one of your little books that it gave the symptoms of catarrh of the stomach, and the and my stomach still grew worse.

"I was utterly discouraged when I wrote to you about my case, but after taking four bottles of Peruna I was well. I can fully say that Peruna did this, for I had taken other remedies for some time and still grew worse instead of better.

'I cannot speak too highly of Peruna, and tell everybody about it who is ailing. Catarrh of Stomach.

Mr. Caleb H. Bortell, Police Officer, 12 North Paca St., Baltimore, Md.,

Mrs. M. E. Reeves, 713 Martha Ave.,

"I have been using Peruna for three years, and find it an excellent remedy for indigestion and la grippe. I hope many more may be benefited by it as I have been."

Catarrh of Long Standing.

Mr. C. A. Reustrom, 570 Seventh St., Ogden, Utah, writes:

"I take great pleasure in stating to you that your medicine, Peruna, has com-pletely cured me of a long-standing case of catarrh.

"I had consulted noted doctors with-out any relief. By persistent urging of a friend I commenced the use of your wonsymptoms were like mine exactly. For several months I had doctored for indigestion, liver trouble and rheumatism, but the doctor did not seem to help me, but the doctor did not seem to help me,

"As for myself, I suffered untold agony, but to-day I feel as spry as any one, with more ambition and confidence in myself than I have enjoyed for years. All my friends say I look better than ever before, and I urge them all to try. Peruna, and have sold dozens of bottles with the greatest of satisfaction.

"Your Peruna is the greatest tonic and builder for a broken-down constitution arising from that dreadful disease, catarrh.

Nervous Prostration.

Mrs. Olive Hull, Hastings, Minn.,

"For several years I was troubled with catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. Many times I would vomit before and after eating.

"I took seven bottles of your Peruna, and I am glad to say that it has cured me. I feel more like living and working."

"It took to say in behalf of Peruna that it is the best remedy I ever took for nervous prostration and other weaknesses. I doctored with different and I am glad to say that it has cured me. I took three bottles of it, and it got me on my feet again."

Nerves in Bad Shape—Insomnia Followed Mr. David A. Gebhardt, 90 Fountain Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "Owing to the strain and worry of business, my nerves got in bad shape and I suffered from insomnia. The torture of sleepless nights became almost "Hearing so much said in praise of Peruna, I decided to give it a trial, which was a fortunate decision for me.

"I could feel the benefit from the first dose. Before I had completed my first bottle I could sleep soundly at night. Six bottles made me surprised and gratified at the marked improvement in my condition, and, what is more, I have remained well ever since."

Pe-ru-na Brought Strength. Mrs. H. D. Amoss, Greensboro, Ga.

writes:
"I feel like a new woman,
